REPORT ON ANTI-RAGGING DAY CELEBRATION

Organized by: M.P.Ed Second Semester Students, GCPE Kozhikode In Association With Thaluk Legal Services Committee, Kozhikode

Date : 12th August, Friday,

Time: 2:30 PM

Venue: College Auditorium

AIM AND OBJECTIVES OF PROGRAMME

The Anti-Ragging Day celebration was organized with the aim of creating awareness among students about the consequences of ragging and to promote a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus culture.

Objectives included:

1. To educate students on the legal provisions, rules, and regulations against ragging.
2. To sensitize students about the psychological and social impact of ragging on victims.
3. To encourage a positive peer relationship among students.
4. To strengthen the anti-ragging committee's mission and ensure zero tolerance towards ragging on campus.

PROGRAMME PROCEEDINGS

The programme began with a prayer rendered by Anjumol Varghese, creating a serene atmosphere.

Welcome Speech: Delivered by Bharath Krishnan (M.P.Ed Second Semester), warmly welcoming the dignitaries, faculty, and students.

Presidential Address: By Prof. Biju Lona, Vice Principal, GCPE, who emphasized the importance of maintaining discipline and harmony within the institution.

Inauguration: The programme was formally inaugurated by Prof. Dr. Prasannakumaran K, Principal, GCPE. In his address, he highlighted the institutional commitment towards ensuring a ragging-free campus.

Felicitational Address: By Dr. Sunil Alphonse, HOD, PG Department, who encouraged students to uphold values of respect and unity.

Chief Guest & Resource Person: Adv. Mrudula P, Panel Lawyer, Taluk Legal Services Committee, Kozhikode, delivered an insightful session. She explained in detail the anti-ragging laws, rules, and legal consequences of ragging. The talk was interactive, informative, and highly beneficial for the student community. All participants listened attentively and engaged in the session.

Token of Love: A memento was presented to Adv. Mrudula by the respected Principal as a gesture of gratitude.

Cultural Performance: M.P.Ed students staged a thought-provoking mime performance representing the anti-ragging theme, which was well appreciated by the audience.

Vote of Thanks: Proposed by Adarsh M.G. (M.P.Ed Second Semester), expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, resource persons, and participants.

STUDENT FEEDBACK

The feedback from students was overwhelmingly positive. Many expressed that the session by Adv. Mrudula was eye-opening, as it provided clarity on the legal aspects and strict actions against ragging. The mime performance was also highly appreciated for creatively spreading the message. Students acknowledged that the programme helped them understand the seriousness of ragging and motivated them to promote a ragging-free campus culture.

CONCLUSION

The Anti-Ragging Day celebration was a successful initiative that fulfilled its aim of spreading awareness about the ill effects and legal consequences of ragging. The collaboration with the Taluk Legal Services Committee added value to the programme by providing authentic legal insights. The active participation of students and faculty reflected the collective commitment towards building a safe and respectful educational environment.
