INTRODUCTION

The IT Club of Government College of Physical Education, Kozhikode, organized the Young Innovators Program, a flagship program of K-DISC ,with the objective of fostering creativity, digital proficiency, and innovative thinking among students. The event created a vibrant platform for learners to explore ideas, understand emerging technological opportunities, and interact with experts working in the field of innovation.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PROGRAM

1.WELCOME ADDRESS :-

The program commenced at 10:30 AM with a warm and gracious welcome speech by Dr. Sreenath, IT Club Coordinator, GCPE. In his address, he highlighted the importance of technology-driven learning and the role of innovative thinking in modern education. He extended his heartfelt welcome to all dignitaries, guests, faculty members, and students.

2.INAUGURATION

The official inauguration of the Young Innovators Program was conducted by Prof. Dr. Prasannakumaran K , Principal GCPE. In his inaugural remarks, he emphasized the significance of nurturing young minds to become creators and problem-solvers. He appreciated the efforts of the IT Club in organizing such a meaningful program and encouraged students to actively participate in technological initiatives for their academic and personal growth.

3.SESSION BY THE RESOURCE PERSON

The highlight of the program was the session led by Ms. Anu Mariya C. J, Assistant Program Manager, KDISC. Through an insightful and engaging presentation, she introduced students to various innovation challenges, opportunities offered by KDISC, and the importance of design thinking in developing practical solutions. Her interactive session motivated students to explore new ideas and take part in innovation-based projects and competitions.

4. TOKEN OF LOVE

As a gesture of gratitude and appreciation, a token of love was presented to the Resource Person by Our College Principal. This moment reflected the institution's respect for the valuable knowledge and guidance shared during the program.

5. VOTE OF THANKS

The formal proceedings concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Adarsh M. G, IT Club Secretary. He expressed sincere gratitude to the Principal, the Resource Person, faculty members, organizing committee, and all participants for contributing to the success of the event.

6.CONCLUSION

The Young Innovators Program proved to be an enriching and inspiring experience for all attendees. The event successfully encouraged students to embrace innovation and explore avenues in the digital and technological landscape. The IT Club's initiative stands as a significant step toward cultivating a culture of creativity and forward-thinking within the campus.
