REPORT ON THE INAUGURATION OF THE LITERARY CLUB – 2026–27

The inauguration of the Literary Club of Government College of Physical Education, Kozhikode for the academic year 2026–27 was conducted on 22 September 2026 at 12:15 p.m. The programme was organised with the objective of encouraging literary interests, creativity, communication skills, critical thinking, and active participation among the students.

The programme commenced with a welcome address by Vishnu Ramesh T.K., B.P.Ed Third Semester, who warmly welcomed the Principal, faculty members and students to the inaugural function. He highlighted the importance of literary activities in developing students' language skills, imagination, confidence and overall personality.

The Presidential Address and inauguration of the Literary Club were delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Bijulona K.S., Principal, Government College of Physical Education, Kozhikode. In his address, he emphasised the importance of literature and creative expression in the holistic development of students. He encouraged the students to actively participate in literary activities and make use of the platform provided by the Literary Club to develop their talents and express their ideas.

Dr. Roy John V., Assistant Professor, delivered an address as part of the inaugural programme. He spoke about the relevance of literary activities in the academic and personal development of students and encouraged them to cultivate reading, writing and communication habits.

Dr. Roy John Sir unveiled the college literary club logo.

The felicitation address was delivered by Sunil Ramachandran, Convenor of literary club. He appreciated the efforts taken to establish and strengthen the Literary Club and encouraged students to participate actively in the programmes organised throughout the academic year. He also highlighted the role of literary activities in improving students' confidence, creativity and ability to communicate effectively.

The Annual Vision of the Literary Club was presented by Sandra S., B.P.Ed Third Semester. She outlined the proposed vision and activities of the club for the academic year 2026–27. The vision focused on creating opportunities for students to explore literature, develop creative skills, participate in literary competitions and programmes, and build a vibrant literary culture within the institution.

As part of the inaugural programme, an engaging literary activity titled “Literary Spark – Connect the Words” was introduced by Gouri B., BPES Second Year. The activity was designed to make literature enjoyable and interactive while encouraging students to think creatively, improve vocabulary and establish connections between words and ideas. The activity generated enthusiasm among the students and provided an opportunity for them to participate in a fun and intellectually stimulating programme.

The first prize was grabbed by BPEd Third semester students Mahima and Muhammed Aslam, Second prize won by Hijas Malik and Musthaque Ali P.

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Nandakishore, B.P.Ed First Semester. He expressed gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, students and all those who contributed to the successful organisation of the Literary Club inauguration.

The inauguration marked the beginning of the activities of the Literary Club for the academic year 2026–27. The programme successfully created awareness about the objectives of the club and motivated students to participate in literary and creative activities. It is expected that the Literary Club will continue to provide a meaningful platform for students to develop their literary talents, communication skills, creativity and appreciation of literature throughout the academic year.
